RBL Bank appoints Shrinath Bolloju as Chief Operations Officer

Mumbai, August 3, 2017: RBL Bank, one of India's fastest growing private sector banks, today announced the appointment of Shrinath Bolloju as Chief Operations Officer.

Shrinath will be responsible for driving RBL Bank's Operations function. He will help in building a future ready operations platform in alignment with 'RBL 2020' vision and would be reporting to R Gurumurthy, Head - Risk & Governance at the bank.

A seasoned banker, Shrinath joins RBL Bank from Deutsche Bank, Singapore where he was the MD & Global Head of Securities Transformation. He started his career with Citi Bank in their technology captive in India, working for clients across Europe & the Middle East. He then moved to Deutsche Bank, wherein he held leadership positions across various domains within the operations & technology areas. During this period, he was also the MD & Group COO in India. Prior to his transformation role, Shrinath was heading Deutsche Bank's Institutional cash and securities services business in Asia Pacific.

Welcoming the appointment, RBL Bank MD and CEO, Vishwavir Ahuja said, "Shrinath will be an important pillar of our management team. He brings in decades of rich experience both in India and internationally. His understanding of operational and technical requirements of a bank makes him the right choice to head our operations function."

Shrinath is a graduate in Chemical Engineering from National Institute of Technology, Warangal with a PG in Business Management from SP Jain Institute of Management & Research, Mumbai.
